TOP 3 Best Defenders in Infantil Spanish Championship

TOP 10 Efficiency and Scoring in Infantil Spanish Championship

TOP 2 Best Defender ProCamp Sarajevo 2019

Arnau is a fast guard player who mainly plays as a shooting guard.

In attack he is a very efficient player, who draws a lot of fouls from his defenders thanks to his verticality and speed. Although it is not one of his tasks, he can help the point guard to bring the ball up without any problems.

In static, he always finds good shooting situations and is a good threat from three-point range. He makes good use of space, making smart cuts to the basket and making a lot of layups. His 2-point shooting has improved a lot over the last few seasons and he is a reliable free-throw shooter.

Despite not being a particularly tall player, he is a guard who rebounds a lot, both in attack and defense. This is because in defense he will always block his attacker, and in attack he will always touch all the rebounds, as he is a tireless player who leaves everything on the court.

What I would highlight most about Arnau is his defence. He always defends the passing lane and doesn't get down if he has to go to the floor to look for the ball. His defensive intelligence allows him to draw a lot of fouls in attack, especially in direct and indirect blocks.

His coaches often use him to dry up the most dangerous guard player, and he is a player who always defends the opposing point guard at full court, without rest.

Finally, Valderrama is a great professional, the kind of player that every coach wants in his team, who gives his all in training and who does not understand what voluntary training is.
